Wheelock, Eleazar, 1711-1779. *H.16.124=No. 1. in G.389a.169

A continuation of the narrative of the Indian charity-school, in Lebanon in Connecticut, New England . . . With an appendix, containing the declaration of the trustees of that charity; a list of the names of the subscribers; an account of monies received and paid . . .

London: Printed by J. and W. Oliver . . . M DCC LXIX. (1), 145, (1) pp. 19½ cm., in 4s.

Includes the period from Oct. 27, 1766, to Sept. 27, 1768.

This school afterwards became a part of Dartmouth College.

This card was printed at the Boston

Public Library, October 3. 1929.

N3539 — Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H. Indian Charity School.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a record of some kind. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are given in full. The list is organized into columns, with names in the first column and dates in the second. The names are mostly male, and the dates range from the 18th to the 19th century. The list is followed by a section of text that is also written in cursive. This text appears to be a description or explanation of the list, but it is too faint to read accurately. The text is organized into paragraphs, with some lines indented. The overall appearance of the document is that of an old, handwritten record or ledger.

2. The second part of the document is a list of names and dates, similar to the first part. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are given in full. The list is organized into columns, with names in the first column and dates in the second. The names are mostly male, and the dates range from the 18th to the 19th century. The list is followed by a section of text that is also written in cursive. This text appears to be a description or explanation of the list, but it is too faint to read accurately. The text is organized into paragraphs, with some lines indented. The overall appearance of the document is that of an old, handwritten record or ledger.

Wheelock, Eleazar. 1711-1799.

A continuation of the narrative of the Indian Charity School begun in Lebanon, in Connecticut; now incorporated with Dartmouth-College in Hanover, in the Province of New Hampshire from May 6. 1771, to Sept. 10. 1772.
